EDITORIAL

Today is officially the second day of summer. The temperature will reach some where around 20 deg.C. Yesterday I expected to have something blow over or down or at the very least go scampering down the hill and across the paddocks, it was that windy. But no! Everything held its ground, apart from all the leaves and feathers that danced and scurried madly all over my freshly swept pergola. It was the Friday before, however, that was almost perfect. Mid-twenties with clear blue skies, not a puff of wind. The kind of day you start thinking, “ what am I doing at work?” “Why aren’t I fishing or gardening or having a round of golf?”; anything other than what I was doing!

On reflection, this past week sums up my breeding season well. It started out with promise and good fertility [blue skies]. Then somewhere along the way there came a cold front and a change of temperature. Addled eggs, dead in shell, high day old mortality, feather plucking, and parents refusing to feed older chicks. [What a wind storm!]. Now that the season is drawing to its end, hopefully one or three young ones will develop into something worthwhile, [back to more comfortable weather].

I certainly hope everyone had a far better season than experienced by yours truly. It is at this point I try to keep in mind the old saying, “there’s always next year”.

On a far better note, as always, any successful thing is only as good as the parts within it. This year the N.E.B.S. retained the unbroken cap challenge and had great representation at the Logan Shield. Well done to all those who participated in making, not only these events, but a very enjoyable year throughout. [Despite my personal breeding season]. Thank you to all those who continue to give their time and effort, enabling our society to run as well as it does.

Here’s wishing everyone a very merry Christmas and all the best for a safe and happy New Year.

See you in 2019.

Graeme Alchin
President.

ANBC Minutes Abridged for Meeting 16/10/18

An E-Meeting was held on 16th October with Delegates from all states and zones and the following is an abridged commentary of all matters addressed and agreed upon by those Delegates.

President Neale Love gave an opening statement on the importance of Communications to and from the ANBC given that almost all motions to be addressed were as a result of poor communications in the past.

1. By-Laws – at the last Delegates meeting only part of the amended By-laws were approved. All delegates agreed that the remaining By-laws as presented in May 2018 were in order and the amendments pertaining to By-laws 1 – 9. All states and zones in favour.
2. Constitution – Update of this document was approved and has been presented to the Government for change. Thank you to Nigel Tonkin for his efforts in this matter to be sent by ANBC Secretary.
3. Australian White Cap – for 2019 the Exhibition Class will include all birds displaying these features. ie all combinations will be accepted from states and zones.

The class will be the last judged while in place and birds are to be left on the staging for visiting judges to view before moving to their usual viewing position for the public. This variety will also be the ANBC Judges workshop for 2019.

4. Penalty and Disqualifications – ANBC Judges were requested to review the current P & D clauses in an adjunct to ANBC Judges minutes. This review was attended and no recommended changes were assessed by the Judges.
5. Centralisation of the ANBC Shows – several states are against this and rather than see this as an ongoing matter it was agreed that states and zones that may impact (Tas, WA and CNQld) are to advise in 2020 any change to current activities. States are locked in until 2021.
6. Motion from BCT – That the ANBC endorses and approves the recommendations of the ANBC Judges Committee to change the Penalty and Disqualification Clause in regards to disqualifying birds to be deemed Heavily Flecked as per the pictorials approved by the ANBC Judges Panel. Implementation date to be no later than January 2020.

Motion passed with 6 in favour and one against, being Victoria as they had an opposing motion.

Remaining two motions thus lapsed.

C & S Co-ordinator to now present these changes that have been structured for this review.

7. By-law 10 – Discussions led to the change of dates in the By-law to allow more time for states and zones to communicate with all within their areas.

All agreed that Motions now submitted for the 2019 meeting are to be in the ANBC Secretaries hands by December 31st annually.

ANBC Secretary will distribute one agenda by the end of January annually.

By-law 10 to be changed to reflect this and issued to all for acceptance.

8. Freight of Birds to and from the Nationals – it was agreed that the ANBC will reimburse 50% of costs incurred by the states and zones from 2019. All in favour and seen as a good use of ring profits that benefits all. States and Zones to submit copies of these expense to Secretary for reimbursement. Host zone is not eligible.
9. ANBC Container – ANBC will pay the cost of transfer of this container from state to state. ANBC has also commissioned a further two holding cages per state to be added to the container top alleviate the congestion with the increase in bird numbers for Australian White Caps etc.
10. 2019 Rings – all states except for SA have received orders. Dates set by ANBC Secretary in the past still apply.

Peter Glassenbury 18th October 2018.

DOWN MEMORY LANE Part 6: NEBS RING OFFICERS

The Ring Officer Position is crucial for the identification of our birds and recording family relationships, which are fundamental requirements for a breeding program. First mention of a Ring Officer at an AGM was a Mr Ellis in 1975, one year after foundation of the club. There was a Ring Officer Report in 1978 at a Committee meeting but no name attached to that. From 1979 the Ring Officer position became a permanent listing on the Committee, elected at AGMs.

The following members are confirmed as having served as the Ring Officer since 1979:

1979	John Rice	1 year	1992	Alison Coulter	1 year
1980-81	D. Hughes	2 years	1993	Andrew Swift	1 year
1982	Brian Drew	1 year	1994-2001	Keith Dyer	8 years
1983	Ray Buxallon	1 year	2002-08	Graham Bell	8 years
1984-85	Shiralee Reardon	2 years	2009-	Dennis Lomman	10 years so far
1986-91	Colin Champion	6 years
